AU REVOIR

TO-DAY WE PUBLISH THE LAST issue of The New Times, which will assume the name of Justice from to-morrow. The paper was started on January 21, 1933, and during its brief period of over seven months, it has been able to keep aloft the ideals of the Justice Party and broadcast its principles among a large section of the people of the province. It has reached a wider circle of sympathisers and supporters than party organs have been able to do in the past and this was made possible by the extensive news services and other special features which readily made a favourable impression on the general public. As our readers are aware, the paper was started by the Hon. the Rajah of Bobbili, as the leader of the Justice Party, soon after Justice went into liquidation, and now that all the legal proceedings in connection with the liquidation are over, this paper takes over the old name which has brought credit and renown to the Party in this country and outside. Though the change is not by itself very important, it will be hailed with gladness by all members of the Party and sympathisers with its principles, who have come to regard the old name with affection, not unmingled with some reverence. It is not only as a Party paper that The New Times has been functioning with a good deal of success, but also as a regular news-
